

Columbus Faith Coalition Against Violence

~Domestic Violence~

As is true in many cities, Columbus experiences daily violence on its streets. In response, religious leaders in Columbus formed the Columbus Faith Coalition Against Violence to pray for an end to violence in our city and for those who have been affected by it.

Recognizing that the foundation of true peace is the commitment of each individual to non-violence in their personal thinking, life and actions, the Columbus Faith Coalition Against Violence pledges to sponsor a monthly hour of prayer/meditation, open to all, aimed at deepening the personal commitment of those attending to achieve this frame of thinking and living.
